

MACHINISTS GAIN 225 MORE PACTS

(Continued from Page 1)

Many of the agreements provided for one week's or two weeks' vacation with pay, and seniority is the rule.

producers and designers association, includes 19 firms, all of whom agreed to pay hourly wage increases of upwards to 40 cents. In Manhattan, the Association includes 31 dealers. In New York City the agreement negotiated with the Exhibitors Producers and Designers Association, Inc., includes 19 firms, all of whom agreed to pay hourly wage increases of upwards to 40 cents. In Manhattan, the Association includes 31 dealers. In New York City the agreement negotiated with the Exhibitors Producers and Designers Association, Inc., includes 19 firms, all of whom agreed to pay hourly wage increases of upwards to 40 cents.

The large territory covered by the two hundred and twenty-five agreements is indicated by the fact that they embrace 24 cities in the following g twenty-eight States: California, Connecticut, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania,

PRESIDENT FOX VISIONS TEXTILE UNION GROWTH

Days Thousands of Millworkers Are Ready to Join A. F. of L. Affiliate—Marlboro Mill Employees Choose Textile Workers for Bargaining Agent.

Mr. Fox, newly elected president of the United Textile Workers of America, A. F. of L. affiliate, included Charlotte in the tour he is making in the interest of his organization. He said he was very much pleased

There are thousands of textile workers in the Carolinas who will now come into the A. F. of L. organization.

As an outstanding example of this trend he cited the election held by the employees of Marlboro Mill No. 1 at Bennettsville, S. C., to choose the employees. The vote was 256 for the A. F. of L. affiliate and 5 against it. The Bennettsville victory was the outcome of a long fight; it was in Bennettsville where the C. I. O. attempted to take the whole community

Mr. Fox is well known throughout both Carolinas. He is a native of Mooreville, N. C., where he worked of friends in North Carolina, all of whom have expressed genuine pleasure in his advancement to the presidency of the United Textile Workers of America.

UNION CONTRACT ENDS DUBUQUE SHOP STRIKE

ters Brotherhood Providing Wage Increase and Weekly Pay.
By A. F. of L. Weekly News Service.
Dubuque, Iowa.—The seven week strike called by the United Brothers

America, A. F. of L. affiliate, against the Farley and Loetscher Woodworking Company was settled through a new agreement negotiated with the firm by the Brotherhood providing for wage increases for employees in the

More than 900 millworkers returned to work with the signing of the agreement, which was in the nature of a compromise. The union yielded its demand for a closed shop and the

The company agreed to dismiss a injunction limiting picketing and to withdraw charges which were made

The agreement provided that all employees who were working when the strike was declared must be reinstated.

BREWERY WORKERS GAIN PAY BOOST IN MUSKEGON

Muskegon, Mich. (AFLWNS).—Brewery Workers Local No. 253, A. F. of L. affiliate announced the

The new closed shop contract includes a week's vacation with pay.

employees, increase of the minimum wage for temporary labor from 59 to 60 cents an hour, and an increase of approximately 2½ cents an hour for workers in some departments. The wages paid at the brewery are about $1 an hour. The agreement also

POTTERS UNION ELECTS DUFFY AND M'GILLIVRA

East Liverpool, Ohio (AFLWNS). James M. Duffy was re-elected president of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters in the referendum election participated in by the membership. The term of office is for two

John McGillivray, secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood, won his tenth reelection for that office.